This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

As this work is the first of the kind ever published, it may be necessary to enter into some explanation of its object and plan.

Its object has been to include in One general Alphabetical list all those who have any definite position arising either—

From hereditary rank, or From any recognised title or order conferred upon them by the Sovereign, or From any of the higher grades of the military, naval, clerical, or colonial services of the State.

Hitherto, although there have been various works giving information respecting certain of the above-mentioned classes, there has been no one book of reference sufficiently comprehensive and concise, and at the same time handy in size, in which they all were included. Indeed, a great number of names have been included which have never before appeared in any similar work; and it is to supply this deficiency that this work has been undertaken.

As regards the plan, it was found that it would be impossible to minutely carry out in every instance the alphabetical plan of arrangement. It has, therefore, been thought best, when the same name was borne both by commoners and the children of peers, to place all the commoners first, then the sons of peers, then the daughters of peers, and finally widows, whether of peers, baronets, or knights. It has also been thought best to insert the titles of the eldest sons of peers, even although there may be no living person at the time to bear them.

With regard to the Scottish Judges, it must be understood that, like the Bishops in the Church of England, their title is merely one of courtesy, that it ceases on their retirement from office, and does not entitle their wives to the prefix of "Lady."

To those unaccustomed to literary compilation, no adequate idea can be conveyed of the enormous labour which it has been necessary to expend on a work like this, containing so large and minute an accumulation of particulars; for, although the notices of each name may at first sight appear somewhat brief, they will challenge comparison as regards comprehensiveness and completeness with any which are to be found in similar works.

The Editor, consequently, cannot but expect that some inaccuracies must have occurred, but he can unhesitatingly assert that he has spared neither time nor trouble in rendering the work as complete and accurate as possible. He, therefore, hopes that the public and the subscribers will pardon any omissions or inaccuracies which they may observe, and that all those who are interested in any of the names will do him the favour of informing him of such shortcomings in order that they may be rectified.

ADAM BISSET THOM.

PRECEDENCE AMONG LADIES.

The daughter of a peer does not lose her own rank should she marry a commoner or a bishop; but if she marries a peer her title and precedency are merged in his, e.g. if the daughter of a duke marries a baron, she sinks to the rank of a baroness. But if the widow of, for example, a duke marries a baron, she retains her own rank of duchess. The widow of a peer or knight may retain her title notwithstanding her second marriage, but she does so only by courtesy. The widow of a baronet, however, enjoys her precedence for life by right. Official rank and precedence is not communicable to the wife, but the wife of the Viceroy of Ireland and of a lord mayor has precedence derived from her husband's office.

PERSONAL BEAUTY.

"THE HAIR, THE TEETH, AND THE COMPLEXION are the three essential points of a handsome personal appearance; hence their preservation is of primary importance to all."—Le Follet.

ROWLANDS' MACASSAR OIL.

Its success during the last 75 years in promoting the growth, restoring and beautifying the hair is unprecedented, and recorded by numerous testimonials. For children it is especially recommended as forming the basis of a beautiful head of hair. Price 3*s.* 6*d.*; 7*s.*; 10*s.* 6*d.* (equal to four small); and 21*s.* per bottle.

ROWLANDS' KALYDOR,

FOR THE SKIN AND COMPLEXION, is unequalled for its rare and inestimable qualities:—the radiant bloom it imparts to the Cheek, the softness and delicacy which it induces of the Hands and Arms, its capability of soothing irritation, and removing cutaneous defects, discolorations, and all unsightly appearances, render it INDISPENSABLE TO EVERY TOILET. Price 4*s.* 6*d.* and 8*s.* 6*d.* per bottle.

ROWLANDS' ODONTO,

or PEARL DENTIFRICE, compounded of the choicest and most recherché ingredients of the Oriental Herbal, and of inestimable value in preserving and beautifying the Teeth, Strengthening the Gums, and in giving a pleasing Fragrance to the Breath. It eradicates Tartar from the Teeth, removes spots of incipient decay, and polishes and preserves the enamel, to which it imparts a PEARL-LIKE WHITENESS. Price 2*s.* 9*d.* per box.

IMPORTANT CAUTION ! ! !

The high and universal reputation of these articles induces some Shopkeepers to offer spurious imitations under the lure of being cheap. It is highly necessary on purchasing to see that the word "ROWLANDS'" is on the wrapper of each, and their signature, in RED ink, "A. ROWLAND & SONS."

The Genuine Articles are sold by all Chemists and Perfumers.

MOURNING FOR LADIES.

Messrs. JAY, anxious to remove the impression which they find has gained undue circulation, that none but the richest materials in Costumes, Mantles, and Millinery, are sold at their Establishment, deem it a duty to themselves and the public to assure all families who have not yet dealt at JAY'S Mourning Warehouse, that good wearing materials are cut from the piece, and at more than an equivalent for the price, which is from 1s. per yard upwards.

Messrs. JAY have always at command experienced Dressmakers and Milliners, who act as travellers, so that in the event of immediate Mourning being required, or any other sudden emergency for dress, one can be despatched to any part of the kingdom on receipt of letter or telegram, without any expense whatever to the purchaser. All articles are marked in plain figures, and charges are the same as if the goods were bought for ready money at the Warehouse in Regent Street.

LONDON AND RYDER,

Successors to HANCOCK,

17, NEW BOND STREET,

CORNER OF CLIFFORD STREET.

"BEAUTIFUL JEWELLERY!"

Where can it best be met with? is an every-day query. Visit Messrs LONDON AND RYDER'S, 17, New Bond Street, corner of Clifford Street, opposite Long's Hotel; there all that good taste can suggest, capital produce, and skilled workmanship create, are to be met with in infinite variety. This firm is the only one that obtained our International Exhibition Medal for general good taste. They are the successors to Hancock, who for 30 years made the small shop at the corner of the above street a cabinet of everything rare and fine in the goldsmith's craft.

"The man of taste, the connoisseur, the refined and educated, those especially who eschew vulgarity, are advised to inspect the art collection of jewellery produced by Messrs. LONDON AND RYDER, 17, New Bond Street. The large stock of diamond-work is worthy of a visit. Court, presentation, wedding, and other ornaments in great variety, at prices consistent with their reliable value. Extraordinary jewels and gems, from his Serene Highness the late Duke of Brunswick's collection at Geneva, are there to be seen, and most recherché stock, infinite variety in bracelets, tiaras, necklaces, rings, &c.—17, New Bond Street, at the corner of Clifford Street."—Extract Daily Press.

Shakespeare should have said, "costly thy jewellery as thy purse can buy, neat not gaudy, for the jewellery oft proclaims the man,"—and never more so than in the present age of "seeming." A great modern wit has said, "I know a man by his watch chain"; and west-end tailors assert that the "true gentleman" may be traced by his coat.

Elegant jewellery should be refined in taste, sterling in character, and of skilled handicraft; such can be secured by a visit to the "cabinet establishment" of Messrs. LONDON AND RYDER, succcssors to Hancock, 17, New Bond Street, corner of Clifford Street. The best stock of diamond ornaments in London, at prices consistent with their reliable value. The only recipients at the International Exhibition, South Kensington, of a prize medal for "general good taste."

THE YACHTING SEASON.—Punch says—"There is nothing more refreshing than Rhinegau Champagne."—DENYER & Co. supply Yacht owners Free of Duty.

The New

The Morning Post says—"At a time when prohibitive prices circumscribe the pleasures of the table, a word of welcome is due to Messrs. DENYER & CO. for introducing 'The New Sparkling Wine—Rhinegau Champagne,' which superadds to the rich flavour of the finest Champagne, the aroma of the choicest Hocks, and at half the price of the best brands of Champagne."

Sparkling Wine.

"There can be but one opinion—it is THE Wine of the day. It is good and pure. The nobility, careful in this matter, have thoroughly patronized it, and it may be mentioned, as a most recent proof of this estimation, that His Grace the Duke of Wellington honoured Messrs. DENYER, of Regent Street, with commands to supply 'The New Sparkling Wine—Rhinegau Champagne,' for the Ball given at Apsley House on the 17th inst., and again for the Fancy Dress Ball on the 24th inst."—Court Journal, August, 1874.

THE PURE WINES OF SANLUCAR.

"The pure juice of the finest dry grape after nature's unassisted process of fermentation. Spanish physicians always prescribe Manzanilla as the best wine for invalids. At the same time it cannot be too strongly impressed on both invalids and their advisers, that the harsh, bitter wine hitherto sold under the name of Manzanilla is a mere imitation."—The Doctor, August, 1872.

"DENYER & CO.'s Manzanilla is the produce of the choicest of all grapes. The district of Sanlucar alone is favourable to the development of this delicate and life-sustaining wine."—Court Journal.

36*s.* PER DOZ. Manzanilla, Very old, 48*s.*

Solera, 42*s.* PER DOZ.

"DENYER & CO.'s Manzanilla is thoroughly dry and clean, nothing hot and fiery, and a softness which will greatly improve by keeping."—Medical Times and Gazette.

"By personal experience we find at the price, 36*s.* and 48*s.* per dozen, F. T. DENYER & CO.'s Manzanilla Sherry from Sanlucar stands quite unequalled."—Court Circular.

48*s.* PER DOZ. Amontillado, Very old, 54*s.*

The Medical Press and Circular says: "It is quite correct to say all pure Manzanilla comes from Sanlucar. The Samples we analysed were bought of DENYER & CO., 95, Regent Street, and were quite pure. We have since tried samples of Amontillado and Solera from the same firm, which are equally pure."
